MESSAGE

I am pleased to learn that Department of Law, University of Jammu is bringing out Brochure-cum-Application Form for admission to LL.B. 3 year (Professional) Course for the session 2009-10.

The University of Jammu is one of the India's premier research and teaching institutions and has been rated by NAAC as an 'A' Grade University. The University has seen phenomenal growth in the past few years which is visible from the strength of its affiliated colleges and off-site campuses. However, it's time to enter a phase of consolidation of all aspects of the University. I am sure that the Department will provide rigorous academic training and the necessary skills to the students to become great lawyers.

I send my warm greetings and good wishes on the occasion.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW

The Department of Law of the University of Jammu came into existence in the year 1969 with the coming into being of the University of Jammu. In the formative years of its existence, legal education and training in LL.B. Professional course was imparted to students while as in the later years of its development, the Department of Law started the advanced courses in legal education, like, Master's Programme with different streams of specialisation available to the students, programme for Doctorate Studies in Law and the Post-Graduate Diploma in Criminology and Police Sciences. Both LL.B. and LL.M. courses of study offered by the Department of Law are at par with the best in the country and the Department has been constantly restructuring the course contents at all levels of legal education keeping in view the latest trends in the field. The Department now enjoys the distinction of being one of the first in the country to adopt the latest LL.M. curriculum framed as per the latest UGC guidelines.

The Department of Law possesses a rich library having a good number of original works, text books and subscribes to a host of international and national legal journals. There is a state of the art computer laboratory where students can work and access legal materials available on the net. The Department also has spacious lecture theatres and a well equipped Moot Court Room used for the training of young lawyers.

Explanation :

1. For the purpose of these regulations, a student including a Ph.D. Scholar shall continue to be under the disciplinary jurisdiction of the University until he qualifies for the award of a degree or a diploma or a certificate for which he was registered with the University.
Inquiry Authority is the authority constituted under these Regulations to inquire into acts of serious indiscipline of a student/ students and to make appropriate recommendations to the Discipline Committee
Discipline Committee is the Committee nominated by the Vice-Chancellor to review the findings and recommendations of the Inquiry Authority, and to impose punishment in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations.
Quorum Half the number of members of a Committee/Authority constituted under these Regulations shall form the quorum.
2. It shall be the duty of the students on the rolls of the University not to indulge in any act of indiscipline as defined in these Regulations, and to help the discipline authorities of the University to maintain discipline and decorum in and outside the campus.
3. (a) For all cases of minor indiscipline, the appropriate Discipline Authority shall be competent to award punishment to the maximum fine of Rs.50/- per student and for turn out the student/students concerned from the class upto seven working days.
(b) Before awarding punishment, the Discipline Authority shall, as far as possible, ascertain the facts leading to indiscipline either itself or through a teacher/officer authorized by it in this behalf
(c) if it is not possible for the Discipline Authority to fix the responsibility for specific acts of indiscipline due to non-cooperation or reluctance of students, it may, with the previous approval of the Vice-Chancellor, impose a collective fine not exceeding Rs.25/- per student.
4. (a) Unless otherwise provided for in these Regulations, the Inquiry Authority for all acts of serious indiscipline shall be the Discipline Authority. The Discipline Authority may either itself conduct the inquiry or authorize one or more teachers of the Department or officer under it to conduct the inquiry in accordance with the provisions of these Regulations in its behalf.
(b) Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph (a) of Regulation 4, the vice-Chancellor may, suo moto or on the recommendation of the Dean of Students' Welfare, appoint an Inquiry Authority consisting of one or more teachers of the University of not less than 5 years standing, if he is of the opinion that for speedy and satisfactory completion of the inquiry, or because of the nature and gravity of the act of indiscipline, it is expedient to appoint this Inquiry Authority. The Vice-Chancellor shall also be competent to suspend the student or students from attending the classes or library or participation in sports events or residing in the Hostel for an indefinite period, if considered necessary by him.
5. If a prima facie case is established against a student and his presence in the class or campus is likely to affect the inquiry adversely, the appropriate Discipline Authority may suspend a student i.e. may not allow the student to attend the classes. College matchers for 10 workings days or upto the time the matter is reported to the Discipline Committee, whichever is lesser.

Provided that the Dean of Students' Welfare and the Librarian shall not take such an action except with the prior approval of the Vice-Chancellor.

6. In cases of serious indiscipline, when the Discipline Authority is satisfied that a prima facie case of misconduct/indiscipline of a serious nature has been established against a student and he deserves punishment more serious than that envisaged in Regulations 3 (a), it shall act as an Inquiry Authority or constitute an Inquiry Authority as provided in Regulation 4 (a). if the Inquiry Authority consists of more than one person, the Discipline Authority shall nominate one of the members as Chairman: provided that nothing in this Regulation shall affect the powers of the Vice-Chancellor to appoint an Inquiry Authority or order suspension as envisaged in Regulation 4 (b).
7. (a) Inquiry Authority shall serve the charge sheet upon the student containing particulars of the charges framed against him and requiring him to defend him-self by submitting an explanation in writing within three days of the receipt of charge sheet. If the end of justice so require, the charge sheeted student may also be heard in person with or without witnesses at the discretion of the Inquiry Authority.
(b) The Inquiry Authority shall consider the written explanation and verbal statements of the charge-sheeted student and his witnesses, if any. The Inquiry Authority may also require any other person, who has knowledge of the incident, to testify before it in the presence of the charge-sheeted student. The summaries of the statements of the charge-sheeted student and witnesses shall be made by the Inquiry Authority which shall be read over to the concerned witnesses and their signatures obtained in support of their correctness.
(c) The Inquiry Authority shall, on the completion of the inquiry, make a report of the proceedings to the vice-Chancellor.

The report shall contain specific conclusions of fact arrived at by the Inquiry Authority and recommendation as to the punishment which should be imposed upon the charge sheeted student by the Discipline Committee.

8. (a) If the inquiry has been conducted by the Discipline Authority itself, it shall forward the report to the Vice-Chancellor.
(b) If the inquiry has been conducted on behalf of the Discipline Authority by an Inquiry Authority constituted for that purpose, the report shall be sent to the Vice-chancellor through the Discipline Authority. The Discipline Authority may make such comments on the report of the Inquiry Authority as it deems necessary for the disposal of the case.
9. The following papers shall be sent to the Vice-Chancellor when a case of indiscipline is referred to him by the Discipline Authority for appropriate punishment:
