

Advertisement

Applications are invited on plain paper along with necessary documents from eligible candidates latest by 28th December, 2021 for a position of Research Assistant in the JK Science Technology & Innovation Council, Department of Science & Technology Govt. of Jammu and Kashmir funded research project entitled Identification of Active fault segments vis-a-vis potential landslides along the Mughal road, Jammu and Kashmir, "A Sustainable development perspective".

Position: One Research Assistant

Qualification: M. Sc. Geology/Applied Geology

Salary: Rs. 10,000.00 per month (consolidated)

The appointment is purely temporary and till the end of the project. Candidates will be called for the interview at their own expenses and are required to remain in touch with the Principal Investigator. Candidates with experience/higher qualification in the related field shall be given preference. The appointment is purely temporary and till the end of the project. Candidates will be called for the interview at their own cost and are required to remain in touch with the Principal Investigator.

Dr Yudhbir Singh (PI)
Geology Department,
University of Jammu,
Jammu-06
Mob.: 9419124021