CIRCULAR

It is hereby circulated for the information and necessary action of all concerned that during introductory remarks in the Academic Council meeting held on 19.07.2023, the Vice Chancellor urged the Deans, Rectors, Heads and Directors to lead by example, cultivate a culture of innovation and prioritize the implementation of student-centric policies. He underscored the need to align departmental objectives with the University's strategic vision and encouraged proactive contributions towards interdisciplinary collaborations and research initiatives. He emphasized the importance of skill-based learning and advocated for revising the generic structure of courses to focus on employability and transitioning students from job seekers to job creators. Additionally, he called for adopting a problem-solving approach in teaching and moving beyond the confines of traditional classroom methods.

The Vice Chancellor urged to improve the Gross Enrolment Ratio by implementing new pedagogy and Teaching-Learning methods as prescribed in National Education Policy 2020.
