Department of Buddhist Studies

The Post Graduate Department of Buddhist Studies sprang into existence in 1987 at the University of Jammu, and it was formally inaugurated on May 19, 1987, by the then Governor of Jammu & Kashmir State, Shri Jagmohan, the ex-officio Chancellor of the University of Jammu. It is pertinent to mention that Prof. M. L. Lakhanpal was the Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor at that time.

The vision behind establishing this Department as a distinguished centre of teaching and research in Buddhist Studies in the northernmost state was to preserve, sustain and disseminate the traditional Buddhist wisdom and the chequered history of its glorious past in Jammu, Kashmir and Ladakh regions, which happened to be the most prominent stronghold of Buddhism since the days of Ashoka and Kanishka.

The Department has been engaged in offering the Master's Degree Programme as well as the Doctoral one since the inception of the Department in 1987. Buddhism stands for universal peace, compassion, tolerance, rational thinking and scientific orientation. The relevance of Buddhism in today's strife-torn world is far more than ever before. It is the inheritor of an old tradition and the creator of a new culture, besides being a treasure trove of knowledge, value, wisdom and research. The Department aims at bringing into light through research work, the philosophical wisdom, cultural glory and traditional art and architecture of Buddhist Kashmir, which is presently languishing in oblivion. There is enormous scope for research in Buddhist Art, Architecture, Iconography, Archaeology, and Sanskrit and Tibetan Buddhism.

Department of Dogri

University of Jammu has the honour of being the only University in India which offers Post Graduate Programme in Dogri (language, literature and research). Research work on various aspects of Dogri language, literature, culture, history and folklore is being conducted by the Department.

The Post-Graduate Department of Dogri started its functioning in the University of as Dogri Research Cell in the year 1971 with one post of Senior Fellow in Dogri. During this period, Prof. Ram NathShastri, who was the Senior Fellow in Dogri made some important contributions in form of Dogri renderings of some valuable Sanskrit works. In 1975, this Research Cell was upgraded as Dogri Research Centre & Dr. Bal KrishanShastri joined as the first Director-cum-Senior Fellow in Dogri. The Research Centre produced quality research work in the field of Linguistics, Grammar, Literary Criticism, Poetics etc. One major research work entitled DogriNikasteVikas (Origin and Development of Dogri language) was completed by the then Director-cum-Senior Fellow Dr. Bal KrishanShastri and a book entitled "Hindi-Dogri Conversational Guide" written by Ms. Veena Gupta, Research Fellow-in-Dogri was also got published.

In August 1983, the Dogri Research Centre was upgraded as a post-graduate Department of Dogri. Since then, the department has been producing quality research work in the field of linguistics, grammar, literary criticism, poetics etc.

The Department takes the responsibility of providing research material to its students and scholars engaged in their research activities. In this connection, the Department has been publishing its Annual Research Journal, entitled DogriShodh since 1981. Till date, it has published 23 volumes.

Department of Urdu

The Department of Urdu was established in the year 1965 as a full-fledged department of the Jammu Division of the erstwhile University of Jammu & Kashmir. At the initial stages of existence, the department was threatened by the non-availability of students and scholars and as such University Council had therefore to allow department to run its classes in the evening. This shift to the evening timing also enhanced the number of the students. With the passage of the time, research gained momentum and in 1972, the first scholar of the department was awarded Ph.D. Prof. Gian Chand Jain, internationally known scholar of Urdu language was the first Head of the Department and Prof. J.N Azad, later on glorified this department internationally.

Department of Journalism and Media Studies

The media industry's growth especially driven by technological advances coupled with acceleration given to people's participation in governance process has fueled the urgency to develop a human resource in the form of communication and media practitioners who can bring more thought and societal orientation to demonstration of skill and technique. The Department of Journalism and Media Studies, University of Jammu is dedicated to providing comprehensive education and training in the field of Journalism and Mass Communication. Established in 2021, the Department aims to meet the growing demand for skilled media professionals. The Department offers a postgraduate program, which are designed to equip students with theoretical knowledge and practical skills in areas such as news reporting, media production, digital journalism, and communication research. Such study programmes are required which can build theoretical insight and scholarship about core subjects and simultaneously encourage an intuitive understanding of critical global and local issues. Various communication professions rely on the "cultural values and epistemology" as well as the technical skills, the knowledge and aesthetic sensibility of their practitioners. Communication training, thus, requires more than technical knowledge and skills in its practitioners. Those who practice the profession need an "internally organized body of knowledge" which reflects a clear understanding of their society and culture and a personal repertorie of intellectual and imaginative skills. The department has a faculty of experienced academicians and industry professionals who bring valuable insights into the classroom. Students have access to modern facilities, including state-of-the-art studios, computer labs, and media equipment, ensuring they receive hands-on training that aligns with current industry standards. In addition to academic courses, the department emphasizes extracurricular activities and industry interactions. Workshops, seminars, guest lectures, and internships are integral components of the curriculum, providing students with opportunities to engage with media practitioners and gain real-world experience. The department undertakes many activities, like publishing the quarterly newsletter JU Post in four major languages of the region, viz English, Hindi, Dogri and Urdu to ensure practical knowledge of the students. The students also actively participate in maintaining and running community radio programmes of the University of Jammu. The Department is committed to promoting a dynamic learning environment that encourages critical thinking, creativity, and ethical practices in journalism. Through its program, the department aims to produce competent and responsible media professionals who can contribute positively to the media landscape.

Objectives

The Post-graduate Programme in Journalism and Mass Communication is designed to equip students with the theoretical knowledge and specialized skills to be effective communicators in today's fast – paced and dynamic media environment. To that end, the course is structured to provide an in-depth understanding of issues that affect media and society, as well as a broad brush acquaintance with current practices of journalism. Keeping these overarching objectives in mind, the course has been designed in a fashion which aims at standardization across all the four Main Teaching Programmes and papers in terms of the credit system.

Events Organised

- Department of Journalism and Media Studies, University of Jammu organized a lecture on "Role of Media and issue of Social Corruption" by Shri Anand Jain, IPS, Director, Anti-Corruption Bureau, Jammu and Kashmir. School of Hospitality and Tourism Management

University of Jammu started a two-year full time Master's Degree Programme in Tourism Management in the year 2001-2002. The programme was started as a part of the Department of Management Studies. Within four years of its existence, the programme was able to establish its own credentials among the academia and the industry. Looking into the success of the programme, University of Jammu established School of Hospitality & Tourism Management on 27th July 2005 with an objective to develop tourism professionals and promote research. In the year 2009, keeping in view the UGC requirements, the degree was renamed as Masters in Business Administration (Hospitality & Tourism). In the year 2010, BBA (Hotel Management) programme was introduced in the School to train the student in the hospitality sector. Recently, the Department started a new programme in PG Diploma in Global Destination Management. In pursuit of excellence, School of Hospitality and Tourism Management is committed to produce competent professionals, who are dynamic and responsible enough to assume office in various managerial and administrative cadres in various tourism and related organizations. Students from all over the country learn to channelize potential in the right direction and put up concentrated effort, which are well organized and implemented to give practical dimension to the theoretical aspects in Tourism Management.

The Law School

The Law School, University of Jammu was established in Nov. 2003 with a purpose to education in the form of a 5 years law course after 10+2 Stage.

The Law School is governed by the statutes as applicable to the 5yrs law course, notified by the University of Jammu. The Law School has adopted a multi-disciplinary, scientific, flexible and innovative approach in its programs and methods. The Law School is duly approved and recognized by Bar Council of India.

Programmes offered by the Department

- B.A. LL.B (5 years)
- P.G. Diploma in Human Rights and Duties Education (One Year)

Thrust Areas of Research

- RTI and Constitutional Law
- Human Rights
- Labour Laws
- Woman rights and internally Displaced Persons

Events Organized

- The Law School, University of Jammu organized an oath-taking ceremony to pledge to uphold the Fundamental Duties enshrined in IV A and Article 51 A of the Indian Constitution.
- Vice Chancellor, University of Jammu released a book authored by Dr. Bindu Sangra, the Law School titled “Expanding Horizons of article 21 of Indian Constitution: A Critique”. The book highlights the different facets of Article 21 of the Indian Constitution.
- The Law School, University of Jammu celebrated International Human Rights Day.

School of Biotechnology

School of Biotechnology was established during 1998 with major funding received by the Department of Biotechnology (DBT), Govt. of India. The first batch of students was admitted to M.Sc. programme in 1999 on the basis of All India Entrance Examination, CEEB conducted by Jawaharlal Nehru University. The School has been ranked "A" by the DBT, on the basis of independent evaluation conducted at All India level. The School has a permanent faculty of 7 members who are actively engaged in teaching & research. The School of Biotechnology is supported by UGC-SAP, DST-FIST and DST (PURSE) program and is oneof the major contributors to the teaching, research &development of University of Jammu in terms of curricula, research publications and extramural fundingthat are generated at individual and at departmental level. In addition, the School over the short period of time has been able to develop various collaborations at national and international level. Most of the faculty members have national and international network in the area of their specializations that not only contributes to their research but augments the teaching to post graduate students.

Programmes offered

- M.Sc.Biotechnology
- M.Sc.Biochemistry
- M.Sc.Microbiology

Thrust areas of Research

- Plant and Human Genomics
- Metagenomics
- Enzyme Biotechnology
- Plant Microbe interaction
- Bioprospecting of Biomolecules
- Cancer Signalling
- Conservation of endangered Plants
- Plant Molecular Biology
- Nano Biotechnology
- Drug Delivery
- Immunogenomic

Department of Botany

The Department of Botany (UGC-SAP DRS-I and DRSII), established in 1998, has earned a name as an important centre of studies in Botany in the country. It has the expertise and infrastructure to help students opt for getting advanced training in many areas of specialization such as Reproductive Biology, Mycology and Plant Pathology, Mushroom Diversity and Cultivation, Bio-systematics, Ecology, Tissue Culture, Bryology and Stress Physiology. While the contributions have been tremendous in the understanding of fundamentals of Plant Sciences, the Department has also kept pace with the changing national priorities. The Department has a sprawling Botanical Garden and a unique Cactus Garden spread over an area of more than 8 acres, which are an abode to plant species from various categories like RET, medicinal and aromatic plants, succulents etc. The Botanical Garden also houses a glass house, a green house and herbarium cum museum. The Herbarium cum Museum has maintained more than 13,000 plant specimens of angiosperms, gymnosperms, pteridophytes, bryophytes, mushrooms and many artefacts of the plant origin. Recently, the garden has acquired the membership of Botanical Garden Conservation International.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc
- M. Phil
- Ph.D

Thrust Areas of Research

- Mycology and mycotoxicology
- Morphological, cytological and molecular diversity of vascular plants
- Mushroom diversity and cultivation
- Reproductive biology of economically important and RET taxa
- Plant taxonomy and biosystematics
- Plant Stress Physiology
- Ecology and Ethnobotany

Events Organized

- Department of Botany in collaboration with the 100 years old Indian Botanical Society (IBS) organized 3rd Prof. S. N. Chaturvedi Memorial Award Lecture entitled “From biology to biotechnology” by Prof. C. Manoharachary, FNASc.,FNAASc., NASI Platinum Jubilee Scientist from Department of Botany, Osmania University, Hyderabad, Telangana. The award is instituted by Indian Botanical Society in honor of Prof. S. N. Chaturvedi, an eminent botanist of the country who had a glorious career in Botany both as a teacher and researcher at R.B.S College, Agra University.
- Department of Botany in collaboration with Indian Institute of Science Education & Research (IISER), Mohali and Asia Association of Plant Scientists (AAPS) organized an online Science TALK of internationally acclaimed root biologist Prof. Jonathan Paul Lynch, University Distinguished Professor, The Pennsylvania State University, USA on "Roots of the Second Green Revolution: Phenes, Phenotypes, and Phenotyping for 21st century crops”. About 17 countries represented the event with more than 130 participants, largely including faculty, scientists and researchers.
- Department of Botany in collaboration with Pollution Control Committee (PCC), Jammu, J&K Government and National Mission on Himalayan Studies (NMHS), Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change (MoEF&CC), Government of India organized an Awareness Programme on “Stop use of single-use plastics”under ‘Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav’ at the University of Jammu.

- Department of Botany, University of Jammu, Jammu organised virtual inauguration of Jammu, Kashmir and Ladakh Chapter of Society of Ethnobotanists (SEB), Lucknow. SEB is one of the premier science societies established by Dr. S.K. Jain - Father of Indian Ethnobotany in 1980. The society has a vast experience of working with tribal people within the country and mushrooming the growth of ethnobotanical research in India.
- Department of Botany, University of Jammu organized two day online workshop on "DNA Isolation, Diversity Assessment and Analysis using ISSR Markers in Plants" under SERB Scientific Social Responsibility (SSR) Policy.
- Department of Botany, in collaboration with UGC-HRDC, University of Jammu organized a Refresher Course in Life Sciences for teaching faculty of Life Sciences in virtual mode.
- Department of Botany organized two-day National Seminar on 'Plants and Fungi: Polyphasic Characterization and Bioprospection' under the aegis of the UGC-SAP DRS II. Prof J. P Sharma, Vice-Chancellor, Sher-e-Kashmir University of Agricultural Sciences & Technology of Jammu and Prof. A.K. Koul, founder member of the erstwhile Department of Biosciences and a renowned botanist of National and International repute were the Chief Guests.

Department of Environmental Sciences

The Department of Environmental Sciences was established in 1995 as a centre in the Department of Bio-Sciences. After trifurcation of the Department of Bio Sciences, a separate department of Department of Environment Sciences was created in September 1998. The Department is a part of Faculty of Life Sciences, which comprises of Environmental Sciences, Botany, Zoology and Biotechnology.

Our students are making contribution in areas such as Higher Education, Kashmir Administrative services (19), various Scientific Institutes of country, Army, Police, etc. Besides, number of our students have qualified National Eligibility Test (NET JRF) (31), (NET) (141), SET (81) and GATE (08) up to March, 2020.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc.
- M. Phil.
- Ph. D.

Thrust Areas of Research

Terrestrial Ecology
Solid Waste Management
Air and Water Monitoring
Phytodiversity and Natural Resource Monitoring
Wastewater Treatment / Bioremediation, EIA & EMP Studies and Limnology.

Faculty Profile

Name	Qualification	Designation	Specialization	Experience in years

Events Organized

- To commemorate “World Environment Day 2021”, Department of Environmental Sciences, University of Jammu, organized an International Webinar to highlight the importance of ecosystem restoration with an emphasis on recreating energy-smart ecosystems in Asia’s degraded forests and landscapes.

- Department of Environmental Sciences, University of Jammu in collaboration with Green Campus Task Force (GCTF-JU) organized International Webinar to celebrate World Rainforest Day 2021 under the theme "Protected Together Now Forever". World Rainforest Day is observed and celebrated every year across the world.
- Department of Environmental Sciences, University of Jammu, and Green Campus Task Force (GCTF-JU) organized a National Webinar on "Wetland Health Assessment and Restoration- A Geospatial Approach".
- Department of Environmental Sciences and Green Campus Task Force (GCTF-JU) in collaboration with J&K Forest Department and INTACH Jammu Chapter organized a plantation drive in the University.
- Department of Environmental Sciences, University of Jammu, and Green Campus Task Force (GCTF-JU) in collaboration with INTACH Jammu Chapter organized a 'Heritage Walk' to Traditional Mata Vaishno Devi Route, Bamyal, Jammu to celebrate "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav- A Jan Utsav" to commemorate the 75th anniversary of India's Independence. 'The heritage walk was organized to make the students aware about the rich natural as well as built heritage of Jammu region'.

Department of Zoology

The Department of Zoology, University of Jammu is one of the leading centres of teaching and research that came into existence in 1998 after the split of erstwhile Department of Bio-Sciences that was established in 1971. The Department has six well equipped Research laboratories, a Zoological Museum, Zoological Park, Computer Lab and a library with good number of books apart from large number of Journals.

The faculty has been actively engaged in research & has to its credit, a number of Research Projects sponsored by various funding agencies viz. DST, CSIR, UGC, ICMR and J&K State Council of Science & Technology. The broad thrust areas of research include Fish & Fisheries, Limnology, Cytogenetics & Entomology and about 200 students have so far earned Ph.D degree in their respective fields.

UGC-SAP (DRS- I) program with a major focus on Faunal diversity of Jammu Division has been successfully completed. Department has also received funds for Improvement of S&T Infrastructure (FIST) from DST, GOI.

Two major International Collaborative projects on Air Pollution and Global Pollination (Limnology & Entomology section) have been successfully completed. A mission mode project with ICMR, New Delhi has been sanctioned recently on Paragonimiasis.

Events Organized

Department of Zoology organized a National Webinar on Brain Illness and Brain Health under “Brain Awareness Program”.

Institute of Human Genetics

The M.Sc. Human Genetics programme has been started in the Institute of Human Genetics with the prime objective of promotion of education and research in the field of Human Genetics and its allied areas. P.G. in Human Genetics is of two years duration with four semesters having 96 credits (24 in each semester).

At present, the intake capacity of M.Sc (Human Genetics) is 12 and teaching is being carried out by two Deputy Coordinators and 03 contractual teaching faculty members. In addition, the visiting faculty is also invited for specific thrust areas of curriculum.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc.
- Ph.D.

Thrust Areas of Research

- Molecular Genetics
- Cytogenetics, Cancer Genetics
- Population Genetics

Faculty Profile

Name	Qualification	Designation	Specialization	Experience in years
Dr. Seema Langer	Ph.D	Coordinator	Fish, Prawn, Crab, Taxonomy, Culture, Parasitology	27 years
Dr. Parvinder Kumar	Ph.D	Deputy Coordinator	Human Genetics, Molecular Biology Medical/ clinical genetics Population genetic	12 years

Department of Computer Sc. & IT

The Department of Computer Science & IT started in the University of Jammu with the initiation of Diploma Course in Computer Science and Applications in the year, 1987. The Department started 3 years MCA (Six Semester) from the year 1994. The students in 6thSemester undertake real life project in the reputed industries / institutions. the MCA course is standardized and is representing 30 courses, 5 practical courses and 1 real life project. The Department has also started 2 years M.Tech. (4 Semester) Program in the year 2014. The 4th semester is based on Dissertation on research oriented problem.

Programmes offered by the Department

- MCA
- M. Tech. (CS)

Thrust Areas of Research

- Web Technology, Network Security, Semantic Web
- Computer Graphics, Information Retrieval, Data Mining
- Artificial Intelligence, Data Science
- Digital Tampering /Forgery , Texture Analysis and Synthesis, Visualization Techniques, Human Computer Interaction
- Natural Language Processing, Web Technology

Events Organized

- Department of Computer Science & IT organized a Placement Drive wherein CoRover Pvt. Ltd. Bangalore was invited in the campus for campus placements. The Company is primarily working in the field of Artificial Intelligence and has 100+ businesses, 400 M+ Users, 20 B+ Interactions spread over 186 countries.
- Department of Computer Science & IT in collaboration with Microsoft, SAP India and Edunet Foundation organized Five-day Tech Saksham Faculty Development Programme.

Department of Mathematics

The Department of Mathematics was established in 1966 with an objective to provide quality education in the area of Mathematics. The faculty members have established international collaborations with mathematicians from Canada, Finland, Germany, US and UK. The Department has created a Mathematical Society to organize national and international conferences/Seminars / Workshops in collaboration with other National and International Mathematical Societies. The Department has a vibrant research atmosphere backed up by excellent infrastructural facilities.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc.
- M.Phil
- Ph.D.

Thrust Areas of Research

- Complex Analysis
- Operator Theory
- Functional analysis
- Topological Vector spaces
- Variational Inequalities and Equilibria

Events Organized

In commemoration of 'Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav', the Department of Mathematics, University of Jammu presented a Skit, 'Aaj Ka Bharat'. The Skit has been written and directed by M. Phil scholar of the Department.

Department of Statistics

Department of Statistics was established in 1988 with the aim of providing quality education in the field of Statistics, with its application and usefulness to the society and to provide qualified Statisticians for the economic, social, administrative, planning and academic development.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc
- M.Phil.
- Ph.D.

Thrust Areas of Research

- Statistical Inference
- Reliability Theory
- Information Theory
- Bio-Statistics & Sample Surveys

Faculty Profile

Name	Qualification	Designation	Specialization	Experience in years
Dr. Pawan Kumar	Ph.D	Professor	Reliability Theory	22
Dr. Rahul Gupta	Ph.D	Professor	Statistical Inference, Bio-Statistics	27
Dr. Parmil Kumar	Ph.D	Associate Professor	Information Theory, Statistical Inference	20
Dr. V.K. Shivgotra	Ph.D	Assistant Professor	Bio-Statistics	10
Dr. Sunil Kumar	Ph.D	Assistant Professor	Sample Survey, Applied Statistics	5

Department of Chemistry

The Department of Chemistry, one of the oldest Departments of the University, was established in September 1962 under the aegis of the erstwhile University of Jammu & Kashmir. Set up with a meagre strength of faculty members, the Department now has seven Professors, one Associate Professor and two Assistant Professors. All the faculty members have excelled in their respective specializations in teaching as well as in research.

The students during their stay in the department are given rigorous training to meet the growing challenges in various sectors. Many of them are serving in industry, atomic energy establishments, as faculty members in Universities and Colleges and some have even excelled in administrative services.

The Department was funded by the Department of Science and Technology (DST), New Delhi, under FIST programme (2009) for raising the infrastructure, purchasing of equipments, enhancing the library facility and strengthening the computer laboratory. It was then inducted under DRS-I (2010-14) for financial assistance approved in implementing the Special Assistance Programme (SAP) of UGC. The Department also received grants under the PURSE phase I programme of DST. In addition, the Department also received grant from RUSA 2.0 under Curriculum Reforms wherein the whole curriculum has been revised and scheduled to be implemented from session 2021 onwards.

The Department has established a Chemical Society which aims at familiarizing the students about latest developments, holding symposia, seminars and lectures by eminent scientific personalities.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc.
- M.Phil.
- Ph.D.

Thrust Areas of Research

- Coordination and Organometallic Chemistry
- Environmental Chemistry
- Solid State Organic Chemistry
- Liquid Crystals
- Synthetic Medicinal Chemistry
- Microwave Induced Organic Synthesis
- Membrane Science, Natural Products
- Heterocyclic Chemistry, Ionic Liquids
- Nano Catalysis and Green Chemistry
- Solution Chemistry
- Deep Eutectic Solvent Chemistry

Faculty Profile

Name	Qualification	Designation	Specialization	Experience in years
Dr. Meena Sharma	Ph.D.	Professor	Materials Science / Solution Chemistry	30
Dr. Sushil K. Pandey	Ph.D.	Professor	Dithiophosphate Chemistry, Heterometallocyclophosphazene Chemistry, Flourine Chemistry pertaining to the synthesis CFC's alternatives and electrochemical fluorination, Metallo-organic Chemistry	27
Dr. Rajinder K. Bamezai	Ph.D.	Professor & HOD	Liquid Crystals and Chemistry of Solutions	27
Dr. Kamal K. Kapoor	Ph.D.,	Professor	Synthetic Organic Chemistry, Medicinal Chemistry	27
Dr. Haq Nawaz Sheikh	Ph.D.	Professor	Coordination Chemistry, Metal-Organic Frameworks (MoF), Material Chemistry	23
Dr. Satya Paul	Ph.D.	Professor	Heterogeneous Catalysis, Green Chemistry, Synthesis of bio-active heterocycles	22
Dr. D.S. Sambyal	Ph.D.	Professor	Solid State and Materials Science	22
Dr. Monika Gupta	Ph.D.,	Sr. Assistant Professor	Green Chemistry, Synthesis of bio-active heterocycles, Ionic Liquids	12
Dr. Ashwani Kumar	Ph.D	Assistant Professor	Solution Chemistry, Deep Eutectic Solvent Chemistry	12

Department of Electronics

Department of Electronics became an independent department in 2017, after bifurcation of Department of Physics and Electronics. The post graduate programme in Electronics was, however, offered in the Department of Physics & Electronics since the year 1995. The M.Sc. Electronics is a two years (four semesters) programme with a total of 96 credits including two open courses of 4-credit each in 3rd and 4th semesters. The Department, apart from teaching, is engaged in research in the field of 1) Fabrication and Characterization of Thin Films based Devices2) Gate Stacks using High-k Dielectrics 3) Hybrid Solar Cells and GaN based LEDs4) Device and Circuit Simulation5) Low Voltage Circuit Design 6) Speech Signal Processing 7) Machine Learning based Automation 8) IoT based Systems 9) Smart Sensor Design 10) Energy Efficient Systems 11) Computer Vision and Robotics 12) Biomedical Signal Processing and 13) Digital Signal Processing. The faculty of the department have individual collaborations with scientists in the National Laboratories and Universities abroad. The department has been able to publish nearly 100 research papers with good impact factor in internationally reputed journals and two patents during the past five years.

The present research facilities of the department include research licensed ORCAD PSpice and Silvaco T- CAD Software for circuit and device Simulation Lab. The Departmental library houses a wide spectrum of national and international journals/periodicals in addition to around 6600 text/reference books. Internet facility is provided in the laboratory for the scholars/students for their research & project work.

Industrial training is an important component of M.Sc. (Electronics) course curriculum. The students of the department have been visiting various national institutes like NITTTR Chandigarh, BBRAITT Jabalpur, BSNL, SCL Mohali, DOEAC, etc. The students of the department have also been regularly qualifying NET/JRF/SET and pursuing research in the reputed National Institutes as well as in the department itself. Some of the alumni have been absorbed in MNCs, higher & school education departments of the J&K Govt, BSNL, Defence, PSUs, etc.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M. Sc. Electronics
- M.Phil.
- Ph.D.

Thrust Areas of Research

- Fabrication and simulation of Nano and Photovoltaic Electronic Devices
- Digital Signal Processing for Computer Vision, Robotics, Speech, and Biomedical Fabrication of TENG based device
- Hybrid Solar Cells and GaN based LEDs
- Low Voltage Circuit Design
- Machine Learning based Automation
- IoT based Systems
- Smart Sensor Design

Department of Geography

Department of Geography was established in 1988, thus, considered as one of the youngest department in Northern India. Since 1988 department has made immense contribution in generating new knowledge in physical as well as human geography. It was the only department in the country that had first introduced Glacial Geomorphology as one of the courses at post graduate level. As a result, lot of research work has been carried out on the glaciers of J&K, Ladakh and Himachal Pradesh. Apart from Glacial Geomorphology, present research focuses on Agriculture and Forest Ecology, Population and Gender studies, Tourism and Regional Planning, Cultural Geography, Environmental Geography, Geomorphology and Hydrology and Application of Remote sensing and GIS.

Department of Geology

The Department of Geology is one of the oldest departments of the University established in 1956. The Alumni of this Department have risen to high executive and academic positions including two former Director Generals of India and Pakistan. The Department is recognized under FIST-Level II and has received UGC assistance at the level of DRS-1 under Special Assistance Programme(SAP).

Programmes Offered by the Department

- M.Sc. (Applied Geology)
- M. Phil
- Ph.D

Thrust Areas of Research

- Biostratigraphy, Palaeontology and Sedimentology
- Ore Genesis and Mineral Exploration
- Climate Change, Cryosphere & Quaternary Climate
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application
- Landslide Hazard Zonation
- Seismology and Active Tectonics

Department of Home Science

The Department of Home Science was established in 1988 with a specialization in Human Development. Mission of the Department: Overcoming underdevelopment for societal excellence
Home Science is an applied discipline. It contributes to the improvement of quality of living of individuals and families, which ultimately results in national development. Interdisciplinary field of Home Science can contribute for the benefit of families and the community at micro and macro levels to gear the change and development in the desired direction.

Programmes offered by the Department:

- Ph.D (Home Science)
- M.Sc. Home Science (Human Development)

Thrust Areas of Research

- Human Development
- Early Childhood Development, ICDS
- Parenting , Parental Beliefs and Traditional Care Practices
- Persons with Special needs
- Adolescence, Senescence
- Reproductive and Post Reproductive Health
- Persons in Difficult Circumstances
- Tribal Groups
- Family Life Education
- Schooling and Academic performance
- Girl Child and Gender Issues
- Health and Well being

Events Organized

- Department of Home Science organized Poster making competition on the themes “Women in Nationalist movement” and “Prominent Home Scientists in Post-Independence India”. Students of the 2nd and 4th semester of the department participated in the event showcased their ideas, talent, and creativity.
- Department of Home Science (Human Development), University of Jammu in collaboration with CHILDLINE India Foundation, J&K Chapter organized on activity to mark the “CHILDLINE Se Dosti Week.” Childline is a helpline facility for helping vulnerable children.
- Department of Home Science, University of Jammu in collaboration with Jiger Institute of General Education and Rehabilitation, The Association of Deaf and Aphasic, and Kalpana Kala Kendra celebrated the World Disability Day.
- Department of Home Science (Human Development), University of Jammu organized a talk on the topic “Celebrating Girlhood” to mark the National Girl Child Day.

Department of Physics

The Department of Physics was established in 1967 and offers four specializations in the front line areas of research namely Condensed Matter Physics, High Energy Physics, Nuclear theory and Solid State Electronics. Our post graduate laboratories offer a comprehensive range of equipment allowing students to explore some of the most modern concepts in physics. The students are provided with computing facility to permit easy access to the web, to process data and carry out simulations. The Department is thus, well equipped with necessary facilities and resources for teaching, higher learning and research. Each of the research laboratories areequipped with state of art research facilities. The High Energy Physics group of the Department of Physics has been collaborating in various frontline experiments based at CERN (European Centre for Nuclear Research), Geneva, Switzerland since 1985 , at Fermilab and Brookhaven, USA, Compressed Baryonic Matter (CBM) experiment at the FAIR facility at GSI, Darmstad in Germany. As a part of the ALICE Collaboration, HEP group is also a part of a worldwide distribution network of the computing resources for data analysis (the LHC GRID) as a TEIR 3 centre. In our efforts to set up this GRID facility we aim at developing the High Energy Physics Lab at Jammu University to be a viable centre for data analysis of large experiments.

The X-ray Crystallography group of the Department is also a part of a collaborative research work with several Indian institutes/universities and also with Harvard University, Washington DC in the US. There is a Diffractometer facility funded by the DST. The Crystal Growth group also is a part of the collaborative effort with some universities in UK and India.

Programmes offered by the Department

- Rajni Kant, Fellow Award (FRSC), Royal Society of Chemistry, London2021.

Events Organized

- High Energy Physics (HEP) group of the Department of Physics, University of Jammu organized five-day online workshop on Advanced Radiation Detector and of Jammu is an encouraging step and will intensify ethnobotanical research and activities in the region. Talking about the importance of ethno-botanical research, he said that like biotechnology, molecular biology, there is an equal need to nurture the traditional subjects like ethnobotany and plant taxonomy.

Department of Remote Sensing & GIS

The Department of Remote Sensing and GIS has been established in the year 2008 with all the requisite facilities required for Remote Sensing and GIS studies. The Remote Sensing & GIS lab is well equipped with latest softwares of GIS and Digital Images processing such as Arc Info/ Arc GIS 10, ERDAS 10 with Imagine ERDAS Virtual GIS, Arc IMS, Intergraph Advance RS & GIS Edu. Kit Vs 2015 (modules for Remote Sensing and GIS) and ILWIS etc. Nine batches have already passed out. Among them, 69 students have been absorbed in different places in Government and private sector such as Agriculture, SBI & Canara Bank, JKP as Assistant Commandant, Army Lieutenant and in the Private Sector such as Wipro Co. Jammu, Punjab Remote Sensing, Ludhiana, JDA Jammu, Nokia GIS Mapping Jammu, Dimensions India Delhi, Rehance Geoinformatics New Delhi, Innodata India Pvt. Ltd Delhi, Aerial telecom Chandigarh, MGNREGA, Jammu etc.

Programmes offered by the Department

- M.Sc.
- Ph.D

Thrust Areas of Research

- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Water Resources
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Climate Change & Hydrology
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Land Use Change Scenario
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Cryosphere and Glaciology
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Biodiversity and Biomass
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in desertification Vulnerability
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Urban and Rural Planning
- Remote Sensing & GIS Application in Environmental Impact Assessment

Faculty Profile

Name	Qualification	Designation	Specialization	Experience in years	Total No. of M.Phils / Ph.Ds guided in the service period
Dr. A.S. Jasrotia	Ph.D	Head & Professor	Remote Sensing & GIS	24 years	Ph.Ds: 06
Dr. Ajay Kumar Taloor	Ph.D	Assistant Professor	Remote Sensing & GIS	4 years& 3.5 years (contractual)	-

Department of Library & Information Science

The Department of Library Science was set up in 1971 at the Old University Campus and a Certificate course in Library Science was started. The Department shifted to the new campus, in the newly constructed University library building in the year 1980. The certificate course continued from session 1971-72 to 1983-84. Beginning with the session 1983-84, the B.Lib.I.Sc.programme was introduced by the University. From the session 1985-86, the Department also started the M.Lib Sc and PhD Programmes in Library Science. Since then the Department of Library Science is functioning as Post Graduate Department of Library Science, under the Faculty of Social Sciences. In 1998, the Department shifted to a separate newly constructed wing on the ground floor of the Central Library of the University of Jammu. The Department is recognized as Programme Study Center of Indira Gandhi National Open University, New Delhi since March 31st, 1995 for its BLIS and MLIS programmes,. In January 1999, the Department was also recognized as Study Centre of the National Open School, New Delhi for its CLS programme.

The Department of Library and Information Science at University of Jammu has responded to the challenges of these changes. We acknowledge the possibilities that exist in the new electronic information environment for a person to develop into an entrepreneur who can process and add value to information for market needs, who can use information technology to achieve a competitive edge, and who can utilize information to improve productivity, create new marketing opportunities and identify challenged to develop new information products.

Students after graduation in library and information science have a wide choice of options to choose and can plan their career according to their aptitudes. As a Librarian students after qualifying in their professional degrees will find openings in University, College and School libraries, Museums, and Cultural Institutions, government Institutions and Information Centres besides Companies and Business houses with large information handling requirements.

With the emerging knowledge society and information technology playing the key role in information management, there are immense opportunities and considerable scope to diversity into high tech areas such as database generation and management development of digital library resources, the internet resources organization and assistance, developing virtual libraries, system analysis, electronic publishing, corporate and even freelance consultancy and marketing of information products and resources

In 2008 the name of the Department was changed from P.G. Department of Library Science to P.G. Department of Library and Information Science. Information has become an integral part of all aspects in modern-day life and in the knowledge society. Acquiring the necessary skills for the effective utilization of information and information sources is imperative for every knowledge worker – from the highest level of governmental decision-making to the lowest decision-making individual entrepreneur. The faculty of the Department of Library and Information Science educates men and women at the master's bachelor's and doctoral levels to become leaders in libraries, archives and information/knowledge centers; conducts research to advance the information sciences; and performs public service to support the information professions and the public good. The M. Lib Sc. Degree program provides graduates with a foundation of professional knowledge and skills as well as opportunities for specialized study in Agricultural Information System and Information Technology Applications to Libraries. Furthermore, the Internet, and World-Wide Web in particular, is changing the way people communicate with one another, do business, exchanges ideas, study and transmit information. We all know that the right information at the right time is essential for good decision-making. A working knowledge of the Internet and its applications, as well as the know-how of information management, therefore is an essential skill needed in the modern corporate world.

Centre for New Literature Culture and Communications

The Centre for New Literatures started initially as the Centre for Canadian Literatures in September 1994. It soon became the Centre for New Literatures, to be counted as the first of its kind in India and possibly amongst a handful in the world that began providing research and teaching facilities in African, Australian, Canadian, Caribbean as well as Indian Literature in English including translated texts from Indian Literatures into English, under one roof.

The nomenclature of "Centre for New Literature" was further changed to "Centre for New Literatures, Culture and Communication" in 2008 under the ambit of which the scope and activities of the Centre increased manifold. The Centre started facilitating research and studies by following interdisciplinary methodology, involving literary, social, political and anthropological aspects of the research topic. This important dimension of the research provided an impetus to the agreements which were reached between the Centre and the foreign universities, leading to MOUs and agreements with University of Lethbridge, Alberta and University of Calgary, Canada, etc.

The Centre is headed by Dr.Monika Gupta

The objectives of the Centre are:

- To present a multi-disciplinary view of a fact of languages and literatures in the contemporary scenario through improved and increasingly independent studies and communication in the respective disciplines
- To explore and present the varieties of the English language and literatures in accordance with international requirements which strive to prescribe norms for these varieties as defined by the labels such as Canadian, Australian, American, Indian, Carribean and South African with the status of English being considered as the global language today with wide variations in vocabulary, syntax and usage that makes the study of British Literature inadequate.
- To provide primary assistance to the research scholars and the faculty members not only belonging to the Department of English but also from other departments of Literatures in the University are welcome to the Centre, to consult its magnificent collections of books and periodicals in order to prepare their proposals for the registration of M.Phil and Ph.D programmes and preparing their papers for presentations at national and international seminars and conferences.
- To encourage the application of interdisciplinary approaches in the research based proposals and thus equip the researcher to present a wider and a complete perspective of the literary studies more appropriate in today's altered scenario.
- To maintain research based study relevant to the University's post-graduate teaching programmes.
- In view of the mutual assistance and formal understanding developed in terms of the MOUs signed with foreign universities, the Centre aims at imparting research facilities which will facilitate the students, scholars and the faculty members to carry out their academic endeavors in the joint research activities, participation in seminars and conferences and exchange of students and faculty members.
- To enhance a better understanding of other world cultures and society.

The objective of establishing IIC at University of Jammu is to promote innovation in the University through multitudinous modes leading to an innovation promotion eco-system in the Campus.

The Institution's Innovation Council (IIC) is an initiative of the Ministry of Education, Government of India, aimed at fostering innovation and entrepreneurship among students in Higher Education Institutions. The objectives of the Institution's Innovation Council are:

1. Promote a culture of innovation: The IIC aims to create a vibrant ecosystem that encourages and nurtures innovation and entrepreneurship. It seeks to instill a culture of innovation among students, faculty, and staff, inspiring them to think creatively and develop innovative solutions to real-world problems.
2. Encourage collaboration and knowledge sharing: The IIC encourages collaboration and knowledge sharing among educational institutions, industries, and other stakeholders. It facilitates networking and partnership opportunities to foster innovation and exchange of ideas. The council organizes seminars, conferences, and competitions where students and faculty from different institutions can come together to share their experiences and learn from each other.
3. Work towards skill development and capacity building: The IIC focuses on enhancing the innovation and entrepreneurial skills of students and faculty members. It organizes skill development workshops, training programs, and boot camps to equip participants with the necessary knowledge and tools to innovate and excel in their entrepreneurial pursuits. The council also encourages faculty members to undertake research in innovation and entrepreneurship and provides them with the necessary support.
4. Showcase innovative projects and ideas: The IIC provides a platform for students to showcase their innovative projects and ideas. It organizes innovation exhibitions, hackathons, and competitions to highlight the creative and entrepreneurial talents of students. This not only boosts their confidence but also facilitates networking and potential collaboration with industries and investors.
5. Foster entrepreneurship: The IIC focuses on promoting entrepreneurship by providing guidance, mentorship, and support to aspiring entrepreneurs. It aims to make students aware of their capabilities to turn their innovative ideas into viable business ventures. The council organizes various entrepreneurship-related activities, workshops, and networking events to encourage and facilitate such endeavors.

Auditoriums

General Zorawar Singh Auditorium Complex

The General Zorawar Singh Auditorium Complex, one of the mega infrastructural projects of the University was established in 2007. The Auditorium showcases the rich, diverse and pluralistic traditions and heritage of Ladakh, Jammu and Kashmir and is a step towards meeting the needs and aspirations of the students and the people of the region. The Complex houses an auditorium, a museum and an art gallery. The auditorium is named after General Zorawar Singh, a Dogra soldier, famous for his military expeditions. The Museum is named after Shiekh Noor-Ud-Din Noorani, a great sufi and propagator of Rishi cult in Kashmir and the Art gallery is named after Rinchen Bzangpo, a scholar and propagator of Buddhism in Ladakh and the founder of Gompas, famous for their architecture and design.

The Auditorium has a seating capacity of around 1400 and can be divided into two with the help of a state-of-art hydraulic stage and sliding-folding partition to create a mini auditorium with a seating capacity of 400. The Complex also has a brainstorming room, a reading room cum library, an exhibition hall, a souvenir shop, a green room etc.

The major collection of the Gallery is of contemporary paintings. These paintings have been received from the artists who participated in the “All India Contemporary Artists Camp” at Patnitop (Jammu) in October 2004, organized by the University of Jammu.The other collection is of black and white photographs, sketches and paintings which have been donated by renowned artists and art historians like Prof. S.D.S Charak, Sh.Satti Sahni and Sh.Sarbjeet Singh.The Art Gallery also houses some beautiful wooden sculptures, which were carved in the special “Wood Carving Camp” organized by the University of Jammu in 2005 and attended by renowned sculptors from all over the country.

The Shiekh Noor-Ud-Din Noorani museum housed in the ground floor of the complex has a collection of artifacts covering the history of our State through various ages. The interesting displays in the museum include the remains of Krimchi Temple and a replica of Burzahom pit.

Through this unique combination of an art gallery, a museum and an auditorium, the University seeks to create a holistic academic ambience, where students have exposure to visual arts, performing arts and culture not just for career building but enriching their existing faculties and bringing forth new ones.

The Auditorium is being utilized for holding conferences, seminars, award functions, concerts by the various departments of the University, affiliated colleges, educational institutions, social organizations, etc. During the period under reference, more than hundred events were organized in the General Zorawar Singh Auditorium (both from inside and outside the University).

Brigadier Rajinder Singh Auditorium

Brig. Rajinder Singh Auditorium is a compact auditorium with 325 seating capacity. Most of the functions are organized by or for the students throughout the year. The nature of the programmes organized at Brig. Rajinder Singh Auditorium are:

Global Understanding Course

University of Jammu became the charter member of the International Association of Global Understanding (IAGU) in 2008 and started a Certificate Course in Global Understanding in collaboration with twenty five foreign universities from sixteen countries. Subsequently, the International Association of Global Understanding (IAGU) was renamed as Global partners in Education (GPE). The course became a major component of the global academic initiatives taken in the University of Jammu.

The Global Understanding course provides opportunity to students from twenty three Universities on five continents to study and collaborate with their peers through face to face class meetings using live video, audio, and chat technologies. Through lectures, small group discussions and by working with individual partners, the students learn about universal issues ranging from family structure to cultural prejudices and stereotypes.

The course provides unique opportunities to learn, to communicate, appreciate, work with and understand people from other cultures through direct and personal interaction with students from other cultures.

The course aimed at developing an understanding of communication and culture, in both global and community settings, and the way members of diverse cultures and subcultures utilize unique systems, symbols and media representation to communicate among themselves and other groups. Special emphasis was on developing communication competence, appreciating cultural diversity in our lives, listening, developing effective communication skills when interacting with diverse populations, overcoming communication apprehension, and the understanding of culture through the collection of oral histories and stories.

This course was offered as a partnership between East Carolina University, the United States Department of State, Faculdade de Jaguariúna (Brazil), Shandong University (China), and University of Jammu (India). Intended to foster cross-cultural understanding of global climate change, it was the first of its-kind partnership which kicked off on February 3, with a presentation by President Obama's top science adviser, John P. Holdren, on “Science and the Impact of Climate Change.” Holdren, Director of the Office of Science and Technology Policy, delivered a lecture through videoconferencing , to students at ECU and at partner universities in India, China and Brazil — three countries that are major players in the climate change debate. Austin Bunch, ECU Associate Provost, hailed the partnership as a “feather in the cap” for the universities worldwide.

Course Goals

To become aware of topics, theories, concepts, and themes at the centre of the study of intercultural communication.

To become aware of the necessity of the study of intercultural communication.
To assess one's degree of intercultural apprehension, level of individualism/collectivism, value orientations, ethnocentrism, and intercultural competence.
To improve your intercultural communication competencies in multicultural settings and to develop the ability to adapt to, predict, and control communication outcomes.
To develop an awareness of the dynamics of the multicultural classroom and organization.
specifically to understand and put into practice the communication principles which contribute to a positive classroom and organizational communication environment.

Directorate of Distance Education

The Directorate of Distance Education (formerly known as Institute of Correspondence Education) was established on March 3, 1976 in the University of Jammu. Thus, within seven years of its establishment the University of Jammu, evolved into a dual mode University offering higher education through regular conventional mode as well as distance mode.

Directorate of Distance Education is located in the main new campus of the University and is engaged in offering higher education opportunities beyond the brick and mortar world.

The Directorate being a knowledge creating institution, guided by the objectives of expansion and inclusion on one hand and excellence and quality on the other, is on a path of using technology interventions and innovative practices to cater to the diverse and special needs of the distance learners.

The Directorate of Distance Education, University of Jammu is fully committed to optimally harness its human capital, infrastructure, learning resources and support services to enhance the quality of design and delivery of the courses offered.

The objectives of the Directorate are

To provide educational opportunities to those students who cannot take advantage of conventional institutions of higher learning, particularly weaker and under- privileged sections of the society inhabiting remote and inaccessible hilly areas of Jammu region.

To provide flexibility with regard to enrolment, age of entry, choice of courses, methods of learning, the completion of the programme etc.

To optimally harness Institution's human capital, infrastructure, learning resources and support services to enhance the quality of design and delivery of the courses offered.

To provide cutting edge support services suited to the needs of distance learners with the help of ICT and innovative practices.
