

Senna tora* (L.) Roxb.

Family: Fabaceae

Common name: Sickle senna

Local name: Panwar

Importance:

- The leaves are used externally to treat skin diseases such as leprosy, ringworm, itching and psoriasis.
- The seeds are used to treat earache, dizziness, inflammation of the eyes, abnormal sensitivity of the eyes to light and constipation.
- Decoction is applied for conjunctivitis.
- Balm for arthritis using the leaves.