Each student is required to undergo 2 credits of internship comprising 50 marks in 5th semester. Students will submit internship report signed by internship supervisor and principal.

The internship report will be evaluated internally by a board of college examiners setup by the principal of the college.

A collection of handwritten signatures in black ink, likely representing the college examiners and the principal mentioned in the text above. The signatures are arranged in a cluster, with some overlapping. One signature is particularly large and stylized, appearing to be 'Syedha' or similar. There are several other distinct signatures of varying sizes and styles.
