

Refresher Course in English Language, Literature and Culture

From December 17, 2020, the UGC-Human Resource Development Centre, jointly with the PG Department of English at the University of Jammu, hosted a two-week Refresher Course in English Language, Literature, and Culture. Across the duration of the course, participants engaged deeply in diverse facets of English language instruction, literary critique, and cultural exploration, facilitated through interactive discussions, and academic sessions. This joint effort showed a strong commitment to improving education and helping teachers grow in the field of English studies. Participants experienced a profoundly enriching journey, marked by collaborative learning, critical inquiry, and innovative pedagogical approaches, all aimed at advancing their scholarly and instructional capacities. The course functioned as a dynamic platform for the exchange of knowledge, ideas, and insights, empowering educators to rejuvenate their understanding, broaden their perspectives, and remain abreast of the latest advancements in English language, literature, and cultural discourse.
