concerned provided a seat and other facilities for the courses offered to the student are available in the Department concerned (in the Semester he/she wishes to join) and the student seeks admission within one year from the date he discontinues his studies. The final decision regarding the admission of such a student shall be taken by the Director, ICccR& HRM.

12. A student who does not fulfil the minimum requirement of attendance in lectures in a course will not be eligible to sit in the semester examination in that course. Such a student will have either to repeat the course when classes in that course are held by the Department or allowed to appear in the courses as a private candidate after Second Semester when the University conducts an examination in such course/s for regular students.

Provided lastly in all such matters, the final decision will be taken by the Director, ICccR& HRM, keeping in view the statutory requirements or provisions.

13. The Director, ICccR HRM, shall be competent to cancel the admission of a student enrolled for a course of study in the Department if

i) the student remains absent without permission of the Director, ICccR& HRM for one month continuously; or

ii) the student attends less than 50% of the total lectures delivered in the Semester concerned; after an opportunity has been given to him/her to explain why such an action not be taken against him.

14. A student, who has completed the minimum attendance requirement but has either failed to appear in the semester examination in that session or, having appeared, has failed to qualify in any or all the courses prescribed for that Semester may be permitted to keep terms for the 2nd Semester.
