

Workshop on Recent Trends in Research Methodology from Nov25-29, 2019 JAMMU.

A Five-day workshop on the theme 'Recent Trends in Research Methodology' organized by the Department of English, University of Jammu for the Research Scholars. It was inaugurated on 25 November 2019 by Professor Keshav Sharma, Dean Academic Affairs, University of Jammu who was the Chief Guest on the occasion. Professor Keshav Sharma congratulated the organizers for making the research environment vibrant by regularly organizing such activities. He appreciated the teaching learning environment of the Department calling it one of the best departments of the University. Professor Monika Sethi, Head, Department of English, University of Jammu informed that eminent academicians such as Prof. Anil Raina from University of Punjab, Prof. Hitesh D Raviya from The Maharaja Sayajirao University of Baroda, Prof. Raj Kumar from University of Delhi, Prof. Rita Saldhana from University of Jammu and Prof. Vivek Sachdeva from GGSIP University, Delhi conducted various sessions of the workshop during the span of five days. Scholars and students of the Department participated enthusiastically in the programme. The formal vote of thanks was proposed by Professor Satnam Kour Raina, Principle IMFA. Among those who graced the occasion were senior professors of the Department of Hindi, University of Jammu, Professor Neelam Saraf, Professor Parmeshwari, and Professor Parminder Kour. Also present on the occasion were Professor Sucheta Pathania, Dr. Sadaf Shah, Dr. Garima Gupta, Dr. Ravinder Singh, , Pradeep Kumar, Dr Pallavi Gupta and Dr Divya Sharma.