The course coordinators are required to conduct these Minor Tests without skipping their respective classes. In case of a clash between class timing and the test, the concerned course coordinator shall arrange to swap the class with another faculty member. Separate question papers (both LMS and Descriptive) are required to be set for the backlog students (previous batches), as the syllabus for those batches was different. The concerned course coordinators must also ensure that the weightage of LMS and Descriptive components is 5 marks and 15 marks, respectively, for each test. The course coordinators are also required to ensure the attendance of students in the register for the maintenance of records. The tests will be conducted in the Seminar Room of the Department.
